The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 16, to Saturday November 20, 1762.

St. James's, November 20.

THE following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Exeter, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland.

PErmit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, your ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts animated by the warmeſt and moſt ſincere Joy, to approach your Throne, and offer our Congratulations upon the Birth of a Prince, and the Recovery of Her Majeſty. We are extremely ſenſible, that by your Majeſty's Inſtructions and Example, his Royal Highneſs will become the Glory and Ornament of his Country, the Guardian of the Britiſh Conſtitution, and an Advocate to the Rights of Mankind.

And as it hath pleaſed the Almighty to proſper your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of the Havannah, we preſume to take this Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty upon ſo important an Acquiſition; and we cannot but form the moſt pleaſing Expectations, that our haughty Enemies will, at Length, be obliged to ſubmit to the Terms of an equitable, glorious, and laſting Peace.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Barneſtaple, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Amyand, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Barneſtaple, to offer their moſt ſincere and unfeigned Congratulations on the Birth of the Prince.

This great, this important Event, fills your moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects with the deepeſt Senſe of Divine Providence, in beſtowing ſo valuable a Bleſſing on your Majeſty and your People; and it is with the utmoſt Gratitude, Loyalty, and Affection, that we rejoice on this welcome Addition to our real Happineſs.

May your auſpicious Reign be of the longeſt Duration, attended with every domeſtick as well as publick Felicity, and may there never be wanting, in future Ages, Princes deſcended from your moſt gracious Majeſty, who, with the Continuance of the many and eminent Virtues ſo conſpicuous in their Royal Anceſtor, cannot fail of making Poſterity as happy as ourſelves.

We further humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Reduction of the Havannah; a Conqueſt, which, at the ſame Time that it ſhews the unparalleled Intrepidity of your Fleet and Army, declares likewiſe to us the great Abilities of your Majeſty's Councils; and affords us the pleaſing Hopes, that this, with the many other Succeſſes, will be a Means of compelling an unprovoked and perfidious Enemy to acquieſce in ſuch Terms of Peace, as your Majeſty in your great Wiſdom ſhall think moſt advantageous to the Welfare of your Kingdoms:

Given under Seal of Incorporation, at the Guild-hall, the Fourth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

The following Addreſs of the Proteſtant French Refugees, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Au ROI.

SIRE,

LES Proteſtans François Refugiés croiroient manquer à leur Devoir, ſi à l'Occaſion d'un Evènement auſſi important qui celui de la Naiſſance d'un Prince de Galles, & qui intereſſe ſi particulièrement le Bonheur de la Nation, auſſi bien que celui de la Cauſe Proteſtante, ils ne venoient temoigner à votre Majeſté la Part qu'ils prennent à l'Allegreſſe publique.

Cet Evènement, Sire, quand on l'enviſage dans l'Avenir, joint aux Proſperités éclantes par leſquelles il a plu à Dieu de diſtinguer les Commencemens du Regne de votre Majeſté, ne peut que remplir tout Coeur Proteſtant de la Joye la plus vive. Auſſi ne ceſſerons nous point de faire les Voeux les plus ardens au Ciel, pour la Conſervation de votre Majeſté, & pour la Gloire de ſon Regne.

Puiſſe l'Héritier préſomptif de votre Couronne marcher dignement un Jour ſur les Traces de ſon Illuſtre Pere; & puiſſe une longue Suite de Princes Proteſtans, iſſus de l'Auguſte Maiſon d'Hanovre, perpetuer & affermir à jamais la Religion & la Tranquillité publique!

Perſonne, Sire, n'a plus de Raiſon que nous à tous Egards, de former de tels Souhaits; & nous oſons nous flatter que votre Majeſté daignera les recevoir comme l'Effet naturel du Zèle vif & du reſpectueux Attachement avec lequel nous ſommes de votre Perſonne Sacrée les très fidèles & très devoués Serviteurs & Sujets.

Conſtantinople, September 29. Another very dangerous Fire broke out laſt Week, which threatened Deſtruction to the whole Quarter of the Franks at Pera. The Palace of the Imperial Miniſter is entirely conſumed. The French, the Dutch, and the Venetian Palaces, were in great Danger. The Engliſh Palace happily ſtanding free, and detached on all Sides, remained unhurt; but ſome of the Engliſh Merchants have loſt their Houſes, and not having Time to ſave their Effects, are become conſiderable Sufferers.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.

BY THE KING's PATENT, bearing Date the First of September, 1761.

THE IMPERIAL LOTION, being a Chymical Preparation, the wonderful Qualities of which, by an outward Application, are to extract and expel any Injury or Infection received upon Coition with Persons having the Venereal Disease. Price 10s. 6d. the Bottle. One Bottle will preserve a Person for many Months, and although he has carnal Knowledge of many unclean Persons, he cannot possibly receive any Injury. There is no Occasion to expatiate upon the Use and Happiness of such a Discovery, as all the attendant dreadful Consequences of this Disorder, so fatal to many, by proper Application hereof, may now be prevented, and the Lives and Health of many Thousands preserved by it.

Also, The Admirable ESSENCE OF LIFE, being Chymical Drops, which are an absolute and infallible Cure for Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds, and all Manner of Inward Decays; the Like of which for Certainty in those difficult Cases has never been equalled. Price 6s. the Bottle. By the Author's Appointment these most excellent Medicines are to be had at Mr. JACKSON's Medicinal Warehouse, Fleet-Market, London, and at Mr. Carr's, Bookseller, in Portsmouth, where a Treatise on these powerful Remedies may be had gratis, with plain Instructions, by the Use of which, every Person may preserve and cure himself, even in the worst Cases, without much Trouble, or any further Advice whatever.
